

Back to News Service

Canadian Company Receives Approval to Export Meat and Meat Products to China

Vancouver-headquartered VersaCold Logistics Services, a supply chain company focused on handling temperature-sensitive products, has announced seven of its facilities have been approved to export meat and meat products to China. With three of its facilities receiving similar approval in 2014 and 2015, VersaCold now has 10 approved refrigerated warehousing facilities across Canada.

SHARE THIS

PUBLISHED: Sep. 26, 2016

INFORMATION SUMMARIZED FROM:
CNW Group

IN: NEWS SERVICE

RELATED CONTENT

NEWS SERVICE

Magna Buys German Auto Parts Maker with Significant China Operations

PUBLISHED: SEPTEMBER 27, 2016

NEWS SERVICE

BC Transit Buys China-Made Buses

PUBLISHED: SEPTEMBER 27, 2016

NEWS SERVICE

Canada Signs New Agreements Securing Access for Canola, Beef to China

PUBLISHED: SEPTEMBER 26, 2016

©2016 Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada

Contact Us
Terms of Use
Copyright
Privacy
Support Us
Français

Subscribe

Website by entra.ca